

Australian Government
Department of Education

Asia-Pacific
Economic Cooperation

Promoting Regional Education Services Integration: APEC University Associations Cross-Border Education Cooperation Workshop

20 – 22 May 2014
Prince Hotel & Residence
Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Guest speakers

Plenary speakers

Mr Niclas Jönsson (Project Overseer)

Director, International Group
Department of Education, Australia

Mr Niclas Jönsson is Director of the Multilateral, Free Trade Agreements, Middle East and Africa Section in the Australian Government Department of Education. Mr Jönsson manages the department's international education engagement with multilateral organisations, including APEC, the East Asia Summit and the OECD. He is also responsible for the education aspect of Australia's bilateral and multilateral free trade agreement negotiations.

Mr Jönsson holds a Master of International Affairs from the Australian National University and a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Linköping University, Sweden.

Professor Kent Anderson (Facilitator)

Pro Vice-Chancellor (International)
University of Adelaide, Australia

Professor Kent Anderson is a comparative lawyer specialising in Asia. He joined the University of Adelaide in 2012 as Pro Vice-Chancellor (International), leads the University's international engagement and internationalisation strategy, and as Professor of Law in the Adelaide Law School. He has an eclectic background doing his tertiary studies in Japan, US, and UK in Law, Politics, Economics, and Asian Studies.

For the decade before joining the University of Adelaide, Kent was a joint appointment at the Australian National University College of Law and Faculty of Asian Studies, where he was Director from 2007-2011. He was the Foundation Director of the School of Culture, History and Language in the ANU's College of Asia and the Pacific.

Kent has been a visiting professor at Waseda, Nagoya, Kyushu, Doshisha, Ritsumeikan and Chuo Universities in Japan. He taught at University of Hawaii and guest lectured across Asia and North America. He is a regular media commentator on Australian-Asian relations, Japanese law, language education, and internationalisation of higher education.

Dr Sarah Richardson (Project Manager)

Senior Research Fellow
Australian Council for Educational Research , Australia

Dr Sarah Richardson is a Senior Research Fellow in the Higher Education research program at the Australian Council for Educational Research. Dr Richardson directs a number of projects connected to higher education, both in Australia and internationally. These include large scale surveys (of students, teaching staff and employers), assessment projects (of final year students in a number of key disciplines) and advisory to bodies such as the OECD and APEC. Dr Richardson holds a PhD from the University of Melbourne, a Masters of Arts degree in International Relations from the University of Amsterdam and a Bachelor of Arts (honours) degree is from the University of Liverpool.

Enhancing the mobility of students

Ms Raisa Belyavina

Senior Research Officer

Institute for International Education, United States of America

Global Capacity-building in Student Mobility Data Collection and Dissemination

Raisa Belyavina is a Senior Research Officer with the Center for Academic Mobility Research at the Institute of International Education (IIE) in New York. She manages Project Atlas, a collaborative global initiative to collect and disseminate data on student mobility at the higher education level, addressing the need for improved research on academic migration and comparability of mobility data among leading host and sending countries.

Raisa has also worked on various other research projects at IIE, such as expanding study abroad to China and new trajectories of online education and the rise of MOOCs. Prior to IIE, Raisa worked in the education sector in the United States and internationally. She was on a Fulbright Fellowship in South Korea in 2008/09

Raisa has a B.A. in Political Science and Russian Language and Literature from Columbia University and an M.A. in International Educational Development from Teachers College, Columbia University. She is currently pursuing a doctorate in international education at Teachers College, Columbia University.

Dr Nguyen Thi Thanh Minh

Deputy Director General

Vietnam International Education Development

Ministry of Education and Training, Viet Nam

Student Mobility: a Vietnamese perspective

Dr Nguyen Thi Thanh Minh is the Deputy Director General of Vietnam International Education Development. She holds a PhD in Economics from Foreign Trade University, Viet Nam. Before moving to Ministry of Education and Training to work as Deputy Director General of Vietnam International Education Development, she had been in the position of Head of International Cooperation Department for 8 years, Dean of the Business Faculty for 2 years and was the founder of the Faculty of International Education at the Foreign Trade University.

Dr Minh currently directs the supervision of all joint training programs in Viet Nam, all scholarship schemes by the government of Viet Nam, supervises all Vietnamese students and lecturers abroad and foreign students and lecturers in Viet Nam.

Mr Trevor Goddard
Monash Abroad Manager
Monash University, Australia

Encouraging Student Mobility: the Role of Credit Transfer Processes

Trevor is Associate Director Global Programs advising the Deputy Vice-Chancellor and Vice President (Global Engagement) on strategy supporting the Monash University global footprint, substantiating clarity of value to ensure purposeful international activity.

Trevor's interest is in mechanisms aligning educational policy across government and international jurisdictions that enable education to contribute solutions to intractable social issues. He has held Australian Government panel appointments reviewing international scholarship programs and sat on international accreditation panels for university student service reviews. Trevor was an Australian representative on the IXth Commonwealth Study Conference themed People first in the global community and holds a Masters of International Studies (Distinction), with undergraduate degrees in Science and Commerce.

Enhancing the mobility
of researchers

Professor Paulina Pannen
Expert – Higher Education
Directorate General of Higher Education
Ministry of Education and Culture, Indonesia

Student and Researcher Mobility: an Indonesian perspective

Prof. Dr. Paulina Pannen, M.L.S. is an expert in higher education, e-learning, distance education, educational technology and curriculum development. She earned her Doctoral degree in Educational Technology from Syracuse University, USA. She has over 25 years of experience in national and international education, including her tenure as director of the Regional Open Learning Center of the Southeast Asia Ministers of Education Organization (SEAMEO SEAMOLEC), Vice Rector of Academics and Student Affairs at Universitas Siswa Bangsa International, Dean of Faculty of Education at Universitas Terbuka, chairman of several task forces on higher education quality development and improvement programs under the auspices of DGHE, writes in scholarly journals, and speaks at national and international education forums.

Mr David Yu

Senior Manager
Hong Kong Qualifications Framework, Hong Kong, China

Mobility and Qualifications Frameworks

David is Senior Manager of Qualifications Framework (QF) Secretariat serving the territory's banking industry and the HRM profession in implementing QF. He is also responsible for professional qualifications alignment with HKQF and the development and implementation of the QF Award Scheme for Learning Experiences, and Specification of Competency Standards-based Training Packages.

Dr Chantavit Sujatanond

Interim Director
SEAMEO Regional Centre for Higher Education and Development, Thailand

Researcher Mobility Programmes

Dr Chantavit Sujatanond is currently the interim Director of the SEAMEO Regional Centre for Higher Education Development (SEAMEO RIHED), whose mission is to foster the efficiency, effectiveness, and harmonisation of higher education in South East Asia. Dr Chantavit has worked in various roles within the Ministry of Education, Ministry of University Affairs and the Office of the Prime Minister, and has chaired many committees relating to the enhancement of higher education.

Dr Chantavit has represented Thailand at various regional and international consultations, meetings and conferences, including bilateral and multilateral cooperation with neighbouring countries and with regional and international organisations. Dr Chantavit holds a PhD in Education Administration and an MA in Linguistics from Michigan State University.

Enhancing the mobility
of education providers

Professor Christine Ennew

Provost and Chief Executive Officer
Malaysia Campus of the University of Nottingham, Malaysia

Cross-Border Mobility: Provider Perspectives

Professor Christine Ennew is Provost and CEO of the University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus and Pro Vice Chancellor at the University of Nottingham. Christine graduated from Cambridge University and completed her PhD at Nottingham. She was appointed to lead UNMC in January 2013 and is responsible for the University of Nottingham's first international campus which is located to the south of Kuala Lumpur and is home to almost 5000 students and around 550 staff. Over the previous 5 years, she managed the University's ambitious international strategy, which attracted students and academic staff from almost 150 nations to research and teaching campuses in both Britain and Asia.

Professor Kazuo Kuroda

Professor of International Education
Graduate School of Asia-Pacific Studies, Waseda University, Japan

Asia Pacific Regionalisation of Higher Education: Findings from JICA-RI Surveys for East Asian Leading Universities

Kazuo Kuroda has long been interested in educational development and policies in Asian nations, global and regional governance of education, and inclusive and special needs education. He graduated from Waseda University (B.A.), Stanford University (M.A.) and Cornell University (Ph.D.) and was Researcher in Residence at the Overseas Development Council in Washington, D.C., Consultant at the Asia Pacific Regional Department of the World Bank, Assistant Professor and Associate Professor at Center for the Study of International Cooperation in Education of Hiroshima University, Visiting Fellow at UNESCO's International Institute of Educational Planning and Visiting Professor at the University of Tokyo.

Kuroda is currently Member of the Japanese National Commission for UNESCO and Councillor of the Asian Cultural Center for UNESCO. He also serves as board members for Japan Society for International Development and Japan Comparative Education Society and editorial board members of several academic journals including International Journal of Educational Development and Peabody Journal of Education.

Beyond mobility – enhancing cross-border education without movement

Professor Rory McGreal

UNESCO/Commonwealth of Learning/International Council for Open and Distance Education Chair in OER
Athabasca University, Canada

Open Educational Resources: Opportunities for Collaboration

Rory McGreal is a co-Editor of the International Review of Research in Open and Distance Education and a UNESCO/Commonwealth of Learning/International Council for Open and Distance Education Chair in Open Educational Resources and Director of the Technology Enhanced Knowledge Research Institute (TEKRI) at Athabasca University (AU) – Canada's Open University based in Alberta, Canada.

He is also a professor of Computer Technologies in Education. He was previously the Associate Vice President Research at AU. He is presently co-Chair of an Alberta, Canada project to implement open etextbooks for post-secondary institutions.